

Ann Kidd Taylor and Sue Monk Kidd

Saturday, September 18, 2010
1:00 pm

Lecture, PowerPoint presentation,
Q and A, and Book-signing

$12 suggested minimum donation

Tickets

Tickets are available in the main office at Countryside Community Church or by mail with a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

For more information, contact Cyndi Kugler at cyndik@countrysideucc.org or 402.391.0350 x121

CENTER FOR Faith Studies

Countryside Community Church
8787 Pacific Street • Omaha, Nebraska 68114

Sue Monk Kidd and Ann Kidd Taylor

Traveling With Pomegranates:

*A Mother-Daughter Journey to the Sacred Places of Greece,
Turkey and France*

*P*art travel story and part spiritual quest, Traveling With Pomegranates is a memoir told in two voices. Sue Monk Kidd, best-selling author of Secret Life of Bees, and her daughter Ann Kidd Taylor (in this, her first book), offer this intersecting autobiography set against an amazing backdrop of history, place and myth. Each woman—a fifty-something and a twenty-something, a mother and a daughter—finds herself at a crossroads, and together they undertake a journey to redefine themselves, and rediscover each other. Sue struggles to come to terms with change and transition into older womanhood. Ann is benumbed by the classic question of what to do with her life.

Over the course of their travels, the two women discover a new intimacy, forging a new bond. Their lecture will offer a candid and deeply personal account of myth, place, inspiration, creativity and discovering who you are.

The Center for Faith Studies and Countryside Women's Ministry are proud to host Sue and Ann as authors and presenters in an event that will appeal to women of all ages, mothers, daughters, sisters, grandmothers and girlfriends. We are deeply honored to have been chosen as one of only SEVEN stops on their book tour, and as the ONLY stop in the Midwest! Traveling with Pomegranates paperback goes on sale September 7, 2010. Please come join us at Countryside for this unique and wonderful opportunity.